

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air "Stolen Honor," an anti-Kerry documentary, is contrary to the public interest and an improper use of our public airwaves.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge. By law they are obligated to serve the public interest. Their actions are also contrary to our democratic principles.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Their actions show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
